

Analyst in the making (Intern)

Solution Creation & Delivery	I find robust facts and translate them into insightful, client ready outputs. I am responsible for building confidence to bring insights to internal meetings
Core Consulting Skills	I understand and proactively identify core consulting tools & frameworks and can apply them to project work to deliver 'so what'. I focus on learning at every opportunity and push myself out of my comfort zone
Client Engagement & Relationship Building	I am always the host, engaging meaningfully and professionally, to enhance Manifesto's perception with clients. I understand the client environment and demonstrate the ability to listen and take purposeful action
Project Planning & Management	I am relentless. Working through tasks with speed, I am always thinking ahead with planning and logistics and allowing the team to get to better answers faster
Team Relationships & Management	I am indispensable to the team, and get my sleeves rolled up and stuck in. I am the knowledge hub, making sure knowledge gained on projects is accessible to the wider business, and to the project team. I communicate effectively with my team members and work collaboratively to drive strong recommendations
